MINDFULNESS PRACTICE

If you're feeling a little stressed or need to find your center, meditation might help.

On Wednesdays at noon in Room 118 there are weekly meditation sessions that last thirty minutes. But you can drop in and leave whenever. Stop by and learn how to say "om!"

ROOM RESERVATIONS

Looking for a good spot to hold a meeting for your organization or study group? You can reserve the study rooms on the makai side of the library.

Just go to the Library website's "Quick Links" section and fill out the form. Once its confirmed, you will receive an email and the reservation will be posted on the door. Please try to give 48 hours notice. If the room is not reserved, it's first come, first served.

Also, Room 120, in the very back makai corner of the library, is now available for use. It's got lots of natural light and is pretty spacious!

On Halloween, there is going to be an event at the Law School put on by the Students with Keiki organization. If you would like to bring your kids, there will be trick-or-treating, arts & crafts, storytelling, and games at the Library

The event will be from approximately 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm. Be sure to come dressed to impress!

For both men and women the first step in getting power is to become visible to others, and then to put on an impressive show.... As women achieve power, the barriers will fall. As society sees what women can do, as women see what women can do, there will be more women out there doing things, and we'll all be better off for it.
