Issue 10, January 2015

WELCOME BACK!

We hope winter break allowed you the opportunity to relax and recharge for the spring semester.

As we begin the new year, the Library is looking forward to assisting you as much as possible. Are there any books or study aids you think the Library should purchase? Is there anything you wish the Library had, like more laptop chargers and stuff like that? Let us know at the Circulation Desk or at the email address below!

SCOTUS FACTOID

Chief Justice Rhenquist would answer trivia questions on the bench! His clerks would pass him questions that he would answer and then slip to Justice Blackmun for him to try. From Schwartz, A Book of Legal Lists.

WORD OF THE WEEK CONTEST

Here are the Word of the Week winners since last issue.

Jay Mason - usufruct

Tom Michener - blind tiger

Tom Michener - de ventre inspiciendo

Congratulations to the winners! Submit your legal words at the Circulation Desk for your chance to win a $10 Starbucks giftcard.

RESERVING ROOMS

If you're looking for a place to have a study group or a student organization meeting, the Library classrooms are available.

Groups should be three people or more and be officially affiliated with the School. Reservations are available throughout the year and can be made for up to two consecutive hours at a time. Also, reservations should be made forty-eight hours in advance.

The form to reserve rooms is on the Library website. If you need help locating it, please ask at the Circulation Desk.

RESEARCH HELP AVAILABLE

Having a tough time finding that perfect thing for SYS? Looking for some relevant statistics to really drive home your point?

Ask the Reference Assistants! They're located at the Circulation Desk and are happy to help with any research needs.
