

Bathroom Reader

Issue 11, February 2015

GOOD EATS

Looking for a good place to eat? How about trying Moroccan? Recently, a group of students headed to Kan Zaman, located downtown. They recommend the chicken tajine and merguez couscous. And, if you have a favorite drink, bring it along. It's BYOB!

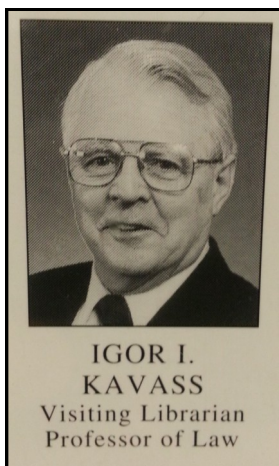

If you go, ask for the tables in the back; there's a nice outdoor seating area that has lots of greenery. Kan Zaman is located at 1028 Nu'uuanu Ave.

Where do you like to go for some "Good Eats?" Let Uncle Bill know!

WHO WAS IGOR KAVASS?

Igor Kavass was a leading scholar of international law and one-time visiting librarian and law professor at Richardson.

He was born in Latvia and emigrated to Australia, eventually ending up teaching law in Australia and the US and living in more than a dozen countries.

He was the initial compiler of the United States Treaty Index, indexing agreements, slip treaties, and treaties not published in Treaties and Other International Acts

Series (TIAS). The update to the index is the United States Current Treaty Index, in which unpublished and unnumbered treaties are assigned KAV numbers (Igor KAVass). Neat! (Information adapted from <http://tinyurl.com/pe3sbab> and Robinson, Tapping the Government Grapevine 139 (1998).)

WORD OF THE WEEK CONTEST

Here are the Word of the Week winners since last issue.

Mark Haines - polyandry
Garrett Halyider - autochthonous

Congratulations to the winners! Submit your legal words at the Circulation Desk for your chance to win a $10 Starbucks giftcard.

