ART SHOW & LŪ'AU

On Friday, September 25, the Library will be having an art show! The theme is "Social Justice." It will feature submissions from students, alumni, and other members of the Law School 'ohana. A spoken word performance group called Pacific Tongues will perform their poetry too. There will be punch and pūpū and admission is free so please come by and check out some art with a message!

"Yuri's Exercise" by Randy Compton (12) will be among the exhibits.

Starting at 5:30 the same night is the Hui's Sixth Annual Welcome Back lū'au in the Law School courtyard. It's $15 for students and $20 for non-students. Come enjoy some homemade Hawaiian food, beer, hula, and music from The Subpoenas, the unofficial Law School band, and others. Hope to see you at either event. Or both!

FAMOUS BAR EXAM FAILURES

We all hope to pass the bar exam on the first try. But, sometimes it doesn't happen. Here are a few people you may know who didn't pass the first time.

- Jerry Brown, CA governor. Failed CA 1 time, then passed.
- Pete Wilson, CA governor. Failed CA 3 times, finally passed.
- Kathleen Sullivan, dean of Stanford Law. Failed CA 1 time, then passed.
- John F. Kennedy, U.S. President. Failed NY 2 times, then passed.
- Hillary Clinton, Secretary of State. Failed D.C. bar exam, passed AR.

So, don't worry! You can fail and still have a successful career! Adapted from Above the Law.

Where do you think you'll end up?

PUN-TIFICATION

I asked my lawyer friend why she painted every room in her house yellow. She said, "This is my legal pad."

The lawyer had trouble with the fine print on some documents, so his doctor suggested contract lenses.

When the Sun and the planets die, one person will receive the whole inheritance. Their lawyer convinced them to pursue a sole-heir system.
