RESEARCH HELP AVAILABLE

Having a tough time with that Legal Research assignment? Trying to figure out where to start for Legal Practice?

Ask the Reference Assistants! They're located in the Lobby near the Circulation Desk and are happy to help with any research needs.

LEGAL WORD

Comity is a term describing the practice by which one court follows the decision of another court on a like question, though not bound by the law of precedents to do so. Example: Having said all this, the court accepted the need to pay healthy respect to the principles of comity.
